The Peninsula Symphony
Begins Season Fifty-Three

The first concert, titled Scared to Death, opens with Michael Daugherty's Dead Elvis and ends with Sergei Rachmaninoff's The Isle of the Dead. Also included in the concert are pieces by Saint-Saëns, Sibelius, Ravel, and Mussorgsky. Andy Favorito will solo in Dead Elvis.

Higlights later in this season include Beethoven's "Triple Concerto", Schubert's Overture to The Magic Harp, and a concerto featuring the Knox Competition winner.

Mark your calendars! November 3 at 6:15 PM for the pre-concert lecture by Maestro Berkson (members only), and 7:00 PM for the concert! The doors open at 6:00 PM. Concert & parking are free. The venue is Redondo Union High School Auditorium, 631 Vincent Street in Redondo Beach (PCH at Diamond). For further information, please call the Symphony Office at 310/544-0320, e-mail us at music.pensym@verizon.net, or visit our website at Pensym.org.
